

The lodging industry in Pigeon Forge continues to grow rapidly, with new properties being announced and built annually, which includes private and chain hotel properties, cabins, campgrounds and more.

In addition to the one percent gross receipts tax, lodging properties located within Pigeon Forge collect a 2.5 percent add-on tax to the customer, applied to lodging rates only, which are collected to support the city budget. Pigeon Forge's lodging tax is one of the lowest in the state of Tennessee, especially among other cities where tourism is the main industry.
